

TENNESSEE

the right location for

TRANSPORTATION, LOGISTICS AND DISTRIBUTION

Tennessee's ideal location and exceptional infrastructure offer the transportation, logistics and distribution industry unsurpassed efficiency and proximity to customers around the globe. With most major U.S. markets within a day's drive, Tennessee provides immediate access to eight interstate highways, an extensive network of railways and waterways, and the world's second busiest freight airport in Memphis.

Our business-friendly climate also features no personal income tax and one of the lowest tax burdens in the country. We're a right-to-work state with competitive incentives that include job training and infrastructure grants, a special economic development fund, tax credits and applicant recruitment and screening.

We have a skilled, high quality work force with more than 244,000 Tennesseans employed in the transportation, logistics and distribution industry at over 16,000 businesses. Some of the state's largest companies in this industry include Covenant Transport, Amazon, Averitt Express, Technicolor Home Entertainment Services, Sysco Corporation, Old Dominion Freight Line, Ozburn Hessey Logistics, Nike and Macy's, just to name a few.
