By keeping corporate offices in the Golden State and moving manufacturing and industrial operations to Central Arizona, it is a win-win situation for everyone. Central Arizona is the hub of the Sun Corridor and is well-positioned today to support future markets.

- Numerous industrial parks with available land
- International airport
- Public/private partnerships
- Interstate rail commerce
- Enterprise zone - countywide
- Major intersection supporting western markets

Central Arizona Regional Economic Development Foundation is the only economic development organization in the State of Arizona that provides build-to-suit programs with incentive lease rates.
