

Marlboro County Training Resources

readySC™

For more than 50 years, readySC™ has been recognized as one of the nation's premier economic development training programs. An integral part of the SC Technical College System, readySC™ provides services free of charge to companies creating new jobs for the state through relocation or expansion. readySC™ brings these companies customized, comprehensive recruiting and training solutions designed to deliver the workforce necessary for successful operations.

- Nearly 4,400 individuals trained in FY 2011-2012
- Over 271,000 people trained since its inception in 1961
- 82 companies served in FY 2011-2012
- Nearly 40,000 applications taken each year on www.sctechjobs.com
- Trained people from each of the 46 counties in South Carolina
- Won an Excellence in Economic Development Gould Award and Trade & Industry Development CiCi Award in 2012

Northeastern Technical College (NETC)

NETC prepares the workforce of Chesterfield, Marlboro, and Dillon Counties through education and training. NETC provides occupational, technical, college transfer, basic academic skills, and continuing education programs with appropriate support services to meet the needs of the individuals, businesses, and industries.

The Southeastern Institute of Manufacturing and Technology

SiMT is the premiere technical service provider, and training facility, for industry in the southeastern portion of the United States. Its state of the art facilities are located on a 146-acre campus in Florence, SC.

SiMT provides engineering / CAD / CAM, rapid prototyping, and 3D virtual reality services as well as leading edge manufacturing workforce development and business process training.